The Cuban lid refuses to be squeezed down in spite of Taft's 250 pounds.

Fidgety people have now turned from viewing the "yellow peril" to the "Hearst peril."

The first football fatality is here, and the season is just in its infancy. What, then, will the harvest be by Thanksgiving time?

The weather bureau considers it quite a feather in its cap to have predicted the recent gulf storm three days ahead of scheduled arrival, and the prediction undoubtedly did save many lives and much property. Such accuracy more than makes up for an occasional slip.

Those Republican campaigners in New York who are comparing Hearst to Clement are magnifying the former beyond reason. There are really few points of similarity between the two men that will permit of their comparison, except that both have been defeated. Among other things Clement has brains.

The Times is in hearty accord with the following suggestion from the Northfield News: "The poor little White river railroad from Bethel to Rochester, which does not seem to have a friend in the world, has been officially closed by the railroad commission, which pronounces the bridges unsafe. A commission with power enough to close a line of road ought to be above entering the excuse that it is powerless to enforce some small regulation on the larger roads of the state, when asked to do so in the interests of the public." The reason why we are in accord it is not necessary to state.

It would be disconcerting for Barre if Montpelier should build its city hall of granite, when Barre did not build its city hall of the native product and promises not to build the public library of the same material. Yet we hope that Montpelier will see fit to use granite in its public building. In view of the present sentiment here, perhaps the city of Barre would build of granite, were the construction to be done over again. It would be quite fitting that the Montpelier city hall should be reared of granite in view of the fact that a great measure of the city's progress is due to that. Vermont's other building stone, Proctor marble, is already represented in the state capital in the federal building. A granite home for the city government would add greatly to the appearance of State or Main street. Nevertheless, Barre cannot ask Montpelier to do what it refused to do itself. But it may prove advisable and feasible to use granite.

We sympathize a little with John H. Senter, who asks what commensurate benefit the public is likely to receive for the $400 that is to be paid the good roads association experts for giving a few short talks on the subject at the state convention to be held in Montpelier next month. Is it the wisest possible direction in which that amount of money can be expended so as to advance the cause of improved highways? A similar proposition has been made to various towns by these gentlemen who like to talk for money.—Ran. Herald.

The proclivity of Mr. Senter to know the insides of this good roads movement, as of other complicated affairs, ought to make him a valuable man in the legislature when a bill comes up to pay this one and that one for "services" rendered. There will be a fine opportunity for Representative Senter to investigate, and he can't be blamed for wanting to know the facts, after all.

FREE AT OUR STORE While They Last See Our Radiumite Window Display

We have received a fine new, special lot of handsome, hand-forged, hollow ground Radiumite Razors that usually sell at $2.00 each at retail, which we will give away absolutely free to the first 100 customers who call on us.

RADIUMITE DOLLAR RAZOR STROP which is light, pliable, durable, convenient, and safe, and which is revolutionizing the art of shaving.

A RAZOR GIVEN FREE TO THE PURCHASER OF EACH STROP. CALL TODAY AS THEY ARE GOING FAST.

THE RADIUMITE STROP is made of a special alloy of steel, which will not rust, and is perfectly balanced, giving a shave that is as easy as a walk. It is the only razor that will not hurt the skin, and it is the only razor that will not break.

Radiumite Strops, 50c to $2.50; Razors, $1 to $3. DANGER! LOOK IN THE USE OF ANY STROP. BUT A RADIUMITE! If imperfectly sharpened razors cut, irritate and open the skin, thus inviting the terrible bacilli that lurk in the pores of shaving foam, into the blood stream, and take us into the realm of disease.

THE ONLY PERFECT STROP IS THE RADIUMITE. Don't use the ordinary cheap, flimsy, common run razor, especially one that will not hold its edge. They are so much of a nuisance, and so much of a danger, that they are a real menace to your health. Buy a Radiumite razor, and take us into the realm of safety.

Our price this week for Razor and Strop $1.00. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
